“I woke up this morning thinking about my sweet friend and how she welcomed me with open arms into her heart when Joe introduced me to her. And then I thought about all the fun times we had. A favorite memory is on the white river in Arkansas trout fishing together. I used to wade out in that 42 degree water bare legged and stand there for hours fishing. When Angie was 83 she waded right out there beside me, waist deep and we caught the heck out of those trout. I tied the stringer around my leg with her fish and my fish. We had a blast! I loved her with all my heart and so did Joe. We will miss you Angie B but we know you are in a better place and your heart is happy. Dea Dea and Joe McHendry
