My Husband Paul wrote this about my Sister Ann! Ann Bryant was a Treasure; Not measured in Silver Or Gold, But in Her Life, where she shared her life with a Smile, a Laugh, Or Thoughtful Word. She Cared for people, even those who she met only once. If you knew Ann, Her Blessings were Passed On. Ann was a person who Loved Life, Life Loved Her back. Ann will Never Die, She left a Legacy for those who knew her. She will be Remembered for Her Faith In God, Believed with Heart and Soul. She Enjoyed Life to the Very End, she was Ready to Meet Her Maker. God wasn't done with Ann, HE gave her Comfort as she needed, It takes Alot of Trust and Pure Faith in Your Life to Follow Through with what was to transpire without hesitation. SO, Ann will pass through That Gate, Heads Up, knowing she has Touched Someone Down Here, Or leave a thought that May bring a Smile to some at a Trying Time. - The LORD has it from here. LOVE YOU, SWEETHEART (EBST)!! 4:20 p.m. 4/20/19 P.S. Knowing Ann is a Life Lesson Learned!!!

Oh my goodness. I just learned of Ann's passing. I truly believe that this woman was an angel put on earth to help each one of us with whatever problem we were facing. She was the sweetest most kind person I have ever met. The last time I spoke with Ann she was contemplating some kind of back surgery. Praying for peace and comfort for the family. Shari Pearson
