“ Billie is my x father in law. It was a privalege just too know him. I remember the first time I went too meet them. We walked in the house and the kids was sit down too eat there supper. Ema gene was finishing supper. We were asked too eat. The meal was good, they welcomed us .I was nervous but they were so friendly and just country. I grew to love all of them. Our kids spent time with them our youngest boy and my other son spent some time with them . I remember my youngest boy chasing the baby chickens boy did he learn fast because the hen got him. Lol I remember him doing his farming. I have alot of memories with the family. I love all of them even after the divorce i was welcome there.I had the pleasure of spending Christmas and Thanksgiving with them. Just so you no I love all the family and till we meet again RIP Billie love you.

“ We are so sorry about Billie. Ever since I was a little girl, he has been bailing my grandma and grandpa's land and now part of that is my land. He also use to keep cows on the property, we would be coming down the big hill on 101st, and Billie would be riding up on his 4-wheeler to check on the cows. He was a sweet man and a hard worker.
