

Deana Eubanks

May 20, 1937 - March 5, 2013

Obituary

March 5, 2013 Deana May Eubanks of Catoosa, OK passed away peacefully on Feb 21 2013 at the age of 75. She was born on May 20, 1937 in Black River Falls, Wisconsin. Deana was a very generous and giving person, who had such an infectious laugh. She was loved and loved dearly and will be missed by many. She was preceded in death by her loving husband Eugene Eubanks and they are now dancing together in heaven. She is survived by two sisters, a brother, five children, 12 grand children and 10 great grand children. Last but not least, her dog Abigail & cat Samantha.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Deana Eubanks, please visit our floral store.

Tribute Wall

JP

“Deets, that is what our family called you and the day we met you was a wonderful day because we knew that our brother had finally met his soul mate. When you all came to visit we always had a great time. I will always remember my summer with you and Gene in Wisconsin, what a time that was. Your smile is one of the things I will remember most about you. One couldn't help but be happy when you were around, thank you for that smile. Thank you for giving my brother a happy life and giving him the children he always wanted. Even though it was a sad time in Florida I am so happy that I got to be with you and Gene. Give Gene a big hug from his baby sister and have him give you one from both Bart and I. I love you Deets and thank you for the good times. Judy

Judy Eubanks Pannell - February 23, 2013 at 11:00 PM

KO

“Mom, You will never know how much you truly blessed my heart by moving here & living with me. I am so thankful that you felt safe and had a peaceful home for your final journey to go be with daddy. I thank God that He gave me you for a mom bc I learned how to be strong, faithful, supportive, financially careful, and a mom that never gave up on her kids... I miss you so much already but I know you have no more pain. I love you bunches!! I will see you again one day... Until then, hug daddy tight for me! Love you both!

Kelly Oliver - February 23, 2013 at 11:00 PM

QE

“ Thank You for teaching me to be strong, free thinking, loyal, ethical, physically demonstrative, true to my morals, industrious, open and honest. As well as how to make a meal out of leftovers, a killer meatloaf, soup, biscuits to die for and how to clean so you can eat off my floors! But most important how to laugh at life and love " " " with all of me. Goodbye. I love you quinnievetta

Quinn Eubanks - February 23, 2013 at 11:00 PM

RB

“ Mom. I more than miss you. A phone call was all I needed to feel better. Your smiling eyes and laugh were like medicine. You loved me even though I was the spoilt rotten bratinella. You gave me the gift of knowing to help those in need. Your generous nature was felt by so many ,most you didn't even know. Making sure strangers had Christmas. I am So thankful for our visit in November. Our midnight junk outs. Learning so much more about you and dad as people not just parents. I thank God for the ability to help look after you in your final days. The peaceful calm loving environment of Kelly's house was perfect. I hope your having a buffet of Robin sandwiches, Hershey's , coffee, Shrimp, Krispy Kreme , and iced tea all you can eat. Better put some fried taters there for dad and egg sandwiches. And as he finished my last bite of cornydog, let there be plenty. Hailey asked what was in your heaven. I said everything my mom could want or need , my daddy most of all. Peace , books and Pawn stars! :-) Come see me. I love you so much. Xxooxx Baby Bird

Robin Barton - February 23, 2013 at 11:00 PM

JM

“ I never was one to write. A little ironic to be writing this now. I want to thank you for all the love and care you have shown me and my Jeffrey. You were the best momma, grandma and great ever. Autie really misses you momma. She asked me to go get you back. I told her you were with Big Grandpa. I was so blessed to be able to help you take care of daddy. It meant extra time. And yummy meals. The time since daddy died has been very special. Sharing with you. Caring for you. I am sorry I wasn't with you, to hold you on your way to dad. I bet you made a grand entrance. I can see him standing there with a smile on his face saying "is that you?". You were who I shared everything with, I am at such a loss. I sure miss calling you to talk. Jumping in my car to running over and watch wheel of fortune. Your smile at chicken and noodles and cookies. Seeing you laying in your room at my house. I love you momma. If the love goes with you (and that is what the goose cries felt like), then your cup runneth over. Oh, the one thing you wanted for me, I think you taught that into existence, thank you. Jamie

Jamie Morris - February 23, 2013 at 11:00 PM