“ I want to offer my condolences to the Shook family. It is a painful thing to lose a love one in death; even Jesus, when Lazarus died, gave way to tears(John 11: 35). It pains our Creator, too, and he has promised to bring our love one back to life at Isaiah 26:19 Your dead will rise ...Awake and shout joyfully you residents in the dust! ...the earth will let those powerless in death come to life then he will swallow up death forever ...(Isaiah 25:8). I hope these words give you comfort.

“ Dear Debbie, I can't wait to see you again. I know that you are out of pain and laughing and dancing and having a wonderful time in heaven. We have been friends so long and I am so used to calling you it is hard to not hear your voice. I love you my friend, as we used to say for all time. Give Jesus a big hug for me and be joyful. I love you. Sharon

“ My great aunt Debbie...you gave me enough love in my two short years to last until we can hold each other in the light. My mommy and my grandma will make sure I have memories in my heart. I love you.

“ You asked me a long time ago to sing True Colors at your wake. I couldn't. You told me to always be strong & happy. I wasn't. You told me to never let a man do what I put up with for far too long. You told me to believe in myself. Even when I couldn't love me or see the hope, you could. Puppy cocoa. Steel Magnolias. Beaches. A Star is Born with Babs. Monopoly. Wood burning. Singing. Smiling. You playing guitar. I will hold it all in my heart. You made my mom & I better people. I am proud to have been the family you chose. Run with the dog angels my other mom. Love you.
