“ Dear mom- I miss you more than I could ever express with words. I thought we had so many more years and took having you around for granted at times. The boys and I miss you so much. I miss you pulling up in your Tahoe and fur coat...I miss being able to call you when I am upset just to vent. You were my person in this life. You never let me feel like I failed you as a daughter even though I know I did at times. You love was never ending, you cared more than most, and you constantly gave and pushed yourself for your family. I didn't say it enough, but I love you so much. These last few months have been heartbreaking and surviving without you seems at times impossible. I hope you know when I think of you, I think of you always trying to protect me and always helping us. I couldn't have done this alone. I love you mom... Love Sarah

“ Diane was one of "my girls" in a ladies Sunday School class I taught many years ago. She was one of the sweetest ladies I've known. I still have a beautiful hand painted jewelery dish she gave me as gift a long time ago...she had a beautiful smile, and she will be missed by many. Peace and comfort to each of her kids and their families.

“ Heart broken. Words are not enough to heal the hurt that separation brings. I can only send my love and these scriptures... Romans 8:8 , 1 Thessalonians 4:13. My prayers are for your hearts and minds. I send as much love as possible your way.
