“Gloomy, was a Nickname I gave Dustin many moons ago. Seriously I have so many stories of our Fun and Adventures. One story I'll share is the first time we actually met. Now Im 8yrs older then Dustin but age is just a number. It was a Fall evening in October. My friend and I was out in the Garage playing pool. Of course the Garage door is open, the music is bumping. We where in a fun conversation. When all of a sudden we hear tires screeching. Then Gloomy says "Can I play the winner". We're like "sure, then u can pedal home wheh you lose" hahaha. Well that night set the foundation of a great friendship. My family treated him like he was blood. He was a very respectful person. I miss him, snd still cant believe this... Gloomy, I tried t9 drag myself to your services. I didnt even leave my drive way. I just froze up, maybe cause I didnt want my last images of you being that. Its been a week and i im just upset that you finally made me tear up. Im missing you GLOOMOUS. Now after me still!!!! We'll shall conversate again!!!!

“Dustin you were such a dear friend and will be missed so much! I love you and you always made everything seem so much better when you would speak about Jesus and God's plan for us. It's hard to accept the fact that I will never see you again. Fly high sweet Dustin Day!!
