“ Just learned tonight of my Cousin, Henry Harris, passing. I have been convalescing at my daughter's home with a broken ankle. So I hadn't reviewed any of my voice mails till tonight. Just want to testify that Henry was a very good man. Henry and Phoebe were both a blessing to me and my four children when I lost my Husband, Leroy. My heart felt condolences go out to the Harris Family. Sandra

“ Ed, you will always be like a second dad to me. Growing up, you were there to help show me the way. Having Jack as my best friend led to you being such an influence on me. Such fond memories like the trip to Hot Springs Arkansas, Boy Scout camping, and learning about Bultacos and how to not fall off the sled as we were being pulled behind motorcycles in the snow. I know it's been years since the last we spoke, but know you and the whole family are in my thoughts.
