She had two sisters, Maxine and Myra, and one brother, Charles Zachary, all of whom preceded her in death. In 1946, Lucile married J.C. Pyle, who preceded her in death in 1983. They had two daughters together, Gayle and Traci. She remarried her second husband, Jack, who also preceded her in death in 2014. She is survived by both daughters, sons-in-law Ronny Foster and Mike Kirk, grandchildren Tod Foster (Sandy), Chad Foster (Amy), Jodie Keel (Calvin), and Sarah Kirk, and by numerous great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren. Lucile had several careers, throughout her life, the first of which was as a teacher in a one-room schoolhouse. She worked in banking, in a loan office, as a decorator, as a director of senior citizen outreach programs, and in her retirement, as a hostess at Henson's restaurant here in Coweta. “ Traci, So sorry for your loss at this time. So glad you had a great mom! I remember her as a very strong-willed woman, who worked hard to take care of you growing up. I really enjoyed seeing her life in the video. You take care! Sandie
