“ I practically grew up in her house in Coyle. Could be because I was best friends with her daughter, Vickie. We always lovingly referred to her as Mother Fochen. Love ya, Elsie.

“ My Daddy's Little Sister. I will forever remember your gorgeous face and your laughter. You are one of the "kindest" souls I have ever known. It was always laughs and good times when the Kingsley Clan would picnic at the park and you always had a crowd of people around you because you were always so FUN to be around and we ALL just LOVED our Aund Elsie!! You my precious lady were loved then and FOREVER loved in all our hearts. Enjoy your new life with with your siblings in Heaven. “ Can't keep from smiling when I look at your picture! Yes, I'm sad you're not here with us but I'm more excited and happy that you're not in that old EarthSuit any longer that trapped the wonderful human you have been to All of Us! Marsha and I knew one another before we were born because you and my Mother Oleta (your Mom-in-law) were pregnant with us both at the same time! Same with Vickie and Randy! You've been in my life forever! You turn 89 a week before my 70th. My Original Birth Certificate says 'Baby Girl Hood' cause being a Surprise #6, they must have ran out of names or really were gonna put me up for adoption? Not sure. Then, Oleta came up with Deborah, a Biblical Judge, and added Jayne to it. Wonder where that idea for JAYNE came from? Not quite a copy-cat! LOL! Elsie Jane was very special to both my Parents and claimed Howell and Oleta as her own. Elsie took me to my first movie where I fell in Love and was in Tears when Elvis sang, 'Love Me Tender!' OMGosh - will never forget it! She took me to my first Girl Scout meeting and when my daughter Charla was old enough... Charla earned the GS Gold Award, I spent 17 yrs in GS and was presented The Thanks Award, highest GS Adult Honor. Have some amazing memories from GS but my First Best Memory is Elsie taking me! There were lots of Firsts with Elsie in my life because my folks were Old before their time and she was there. Elsie would dress Marsha up so cute and Marsha had shoes with socks that matched her dress. Her beautiful red curls all in place. Even in pictures, Marsha is all clean and beautiful beside me in my pajama gown, no shoes, straight hair all over my head with food on my face! Elsie understood how my 5 older siblings (10-19 yrs older) teased me and how I had to be tough to survive it but didn't like me passing it along to Marsha and Vickie, which I did. I always had to be the Indian Chief cause I was the oldest. Oh my. Don't you know Elsie would have loved to tell Oleta to keep that brat kid of hers at home! Good Times! Laughing out Loud!! And there were times we did live together. I remember Elsie in KS, TX, NM and OK. I could ramble on and on about memories Elsie has left in my heart... from Laughter to Tears and All Good. God's Got Us! Amen! HUGS!
