

Faye Evelyn Atkins

November 22, 1931 - September 4, 2011

Obituary

September 4, 2011 Faye Evelyn Atkins of Broken Arrow, 79, passed away September 1, 2011 in Tulsa. She was born November 22, 1931 in Tulsa to Lewis and Dora (Brady) Keeling. She married George A. Atkins and together they created a beautiful family. Faye enjoyed jigsaw puzzles, and watching game shows and hummingbirds in the yard. Faye was preceded in death by her husband George A. Atkins and is survived by her loving daughters: Jeanie Case of Houston, TX and Sharon Brown of Broken Arrow; grandchildren: Rodney Phillips and his wife Jennifer, and Shawn Morrow; great-granddaughters: Hannah Morrow and Nevaeh Mitchell; sisters: Louise Howard, Pat Killion and Carol Williams; sisters-in-law: Doris Lovell and her husband Clifford, and Susie Waggoner; brothers-in-law: Willard Atkins and his wife Melba, and Jim Atkins. Visitation: 5-7PM Friday, September 2; graveside service: 11AM Saturday, September 3 at Dick Duck Cemetery in Catoosa. Kennedy-Kennard Funeral & Cremation, Catoosa, 918.266.2112, kennedycares.com

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Faye Evelyn Atkins, please visit our floral store.

Tribute Wall

AG

“ I would agree with you but all you hear from apple and android ppleoe is that their phones are so much faster and awesome and blah blah blah. This finally shows that RIM can not only make a super secure phone but give it the consumer goodies we wanted in a stylish form factor. And it doesn't hurt that it beat the iphone 4 in browsing.

Agnieszka - February 23, 2011 at 11:00 PM

IT

“ This is hardly a fair test for eiethr platform. Cache was not cleared between tests, no idea if he preloaded the site on eiethr phone, and when the BlackBerry won the first time around he quickly states his wireless might be having a problem. .

Itstwitter - February 23, 2011 at 11:00 PM