“ I was off work for a couple of weeks and when I got back she said there you are. Where have you been and gave me one of her huge smiles. And one day her and one of my coworkers was coming down the hall. They were both yelling my name. I come around the corner and said Mrs. Gail was you looking for me? She said yes I am. I am ready to go to bed. So we had our oatmeal cream pie and a little Dr Pepper and off to sleep she went. I always gave her a kiss on the forehead and told her I love you I will see you tomorrow and she would smile and say I love you too and ok. I love you and I will never forget you and we will have our oatmeal cream pie and Dr. Pepper again some day. So save some for me. Love always💎'💎'💎'💎'💎 Tammy Montgomery(C.N.A. Coweta Manor)

“ I have so many memories of Gail and I from highschool and after. She was in my wedding and my husband and I went to hers. Her son was the most important thing to her. You will be missed. God bless. Until we meet again Gail. ❤️
