

Jackson Oler Clancy

June 7, 1934 - December 22, 2015

Obituary

(No Obituary Text Available)

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Jackson Oler Clancy, please visit our floral store.

Tribute Wall

“ I was a friend of Jack's for the last 5 years or more. He was such a joy to be around and I loved hearing all about his travel adventures! I envied his sense of adventure and his ability to share his experiences! I loved receiving postcards from his adventures! He will truly be missed! Christine Franden - January 05, 2016 at 10:29 PM I have known Jack for most of my life. I'm 52 now. He was a very good friend to our family. He was always a terrific friend to me personally. He was an extremely generous man. As all of his friends know, Jack LOVED to travel. I don't know anyone else who even comes close to the number of trips and miles covered. An example of his generosity: he took me to Hawaii when I was 14, and took me on a month-long trip to Europe when I graduated high school. I got to see so many things that I would have NEVER seen in person if it had not been for Jack! Rest in peace, my friend! You will be sorely missed! Paul White - January 01, 2016 at 10:22 PM i was so sad to hear of Jack's death. He was truly a nice person. I've known him for about four years and he was always so kind as to take me to doctor appointments, give me a ride to the airport, run errands when I wasn't feeling well.....one time he even fixed a lamp for me!!! I always enjoyed hearing about his travels. My favorite memory is when he called me one day to tell me how much he liked a letter to the editor I had written. He referred to my letters as my "column" - I guess because I wrote so many - and always let me know that he was looking forward to the next one. I will miss him. Cheryl Cato
Cheryl Cato - December 31, 2015 at 11:33 PM

December 30, 2021 at 03:16 PM