“ I know that you are whole and healthy once again, not sure they can handle what's coming at them but here you come. I have been so busy I haven't stopped to reflect on how much I will miss you, you were always good for a laugh no one ever knew what was going to come out of your mouth. They should have named you the comeback kid because you had one for everything; honestly don't know where in your head some of them came from, some shocking as well as make your gut hurt funny. We had some rough times in my younger years, mutual understanding in my young adult years, and some once in a lifetime fun in our older years. You would always do something special for me on Mothers Day because you said I was the best mom ever, was supposed to be your day to but you didn't care, thank you for making me feel special, loved and appreciated. I will miss you everyday for the rest of my life, I will remember you for all the good times we had; for that is my reward. You will live on in the hearts of those you have touched through the years, the family you left behind and in the laughter we have shared. So go now for the one's that have passed before are waiting to see you again; I know you are in good hands.....I love you so much, T
