

John Clark

January 24, 1936 - August 11, 2011

Obituary

August 11, 2011 John William "Bill" Clark of Broken Arrow, 75, entered eternal life February 17, 2011 in Tulsa. He was born January 24, 1936 in Baltimore, OH to Grant and Louise (Roshon) Clark. Bill served his country honorably in the U.S. Army. A longtime Rockwell Tool Grinder, he enjoyed hunting, fishing and an occasional drive. Most of all, Bill absolutely adored his grandchildren and was always an instant expert at his children's interests and hobbies. Bill is survived by his loving sons: Anthony Clark, Randy Clark and his wife Tiffany, and Shannon Clark and his wife Kim; grandchildren: Brandon, Courtney, Taylor, Cooper, Rylee, Cash, Jordyn and Kennedy; sisters: Linda Springer and her husband Tom, Bonnie Williamson and her husband Hank, Marilyn Beery and Nancy Miller; brother Bob Clark; and many nieces, nephews and cousins. Memorial service: 11AM Monday, February 21, 2011 at Kennedy-Kennard Funeral & Cremation. Kennedy-Kennard Funeral & Cremation, 918.251.5331. “ I would not be so sure that Clark has this in the bag. The Americans will decide who gets this job and the word is that given the bedgut involved, they will want one of their own and who can blame them after all the crap that has come out of this crap institution in recent years.

“ Why has Key endorsed her for this? After the nnoesnse of the EFA, the awful treatment of Peter Doone, the lust for power at any cost, etc, I think she will get her worldly reward, what has she to stay for here?
