“ I worked with Johnny for the last couple years. Over this time we had many laughs. Johnny would say(You are ate up with it I tell you what) I often heard that saying from Him.I often tried to stir Johnny up and get a laugh. Johnny helped me where ever he could with his knowledge of our trade. All ways willing to get in and get the job done what ever job it would be.Johnny had shared with me his love and belief in the lord and how he become a Christian. I know with the strong faith he has in the lord Johnny is home in heaven.watching and looking over us all. John had told me about his love of hunting and I would fill in some weekends at work so Johnny could go and get a deer. But every photo he sent me his son was in the picture next to the deer.Johnny had said he is going to leave his son at home from now on because he can't bag one when he takes his boy out. This trend carried over into fishing I had filled in for John on the weekend of his Wedding Anniversary.John had organised a cabin for him and his family to go and get away for the weekend and do some fishing and spend time with his family.I had msg John to see how he was going. John said he was having a blast with the family but next time he goes fishing he is leaving his wife at home. She was out fishing them all. I said to Jonny it's time to get new Hobby's because he ain't doing so good with Fishing and Hunting.It is hard to say Johnny is in a better place.For i am sure we all feel here with us is the better place for Johnny to be right now. You will be for ever missed by many gone but never forgotten. R.I.P mate
