“ Looking back on the memories I have, there is not a single one that does not involve smiling, laughing, or feeling like I'm part of the family. Jim had a knack for being present and genuine when talking and I always felt he was truly interested in what I had to say. He was fun loving and always welcomed me and my family during the holidays and anytime. One of my fondest memories of Jim is his rap song he made for his family when he was working out of town. Becky and I played that song over and over and it always comes up in conversation when we talk about "the old days." I cannot recall his reference to everyone in the rap song, but Becky was called the "frogger champ." Jim and Connie have been the example I needed in my life when growing up. Jim leaves behind an amazing legacy in his girls, his grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. He has positively impacted so many people, which can be seen in the memories his loved ones are leaving on this page. While I am sad to see Jim take his journey so suddenly, I am thankful that he is not hurting and is hunting and fishing with those he has loved and lost in his lifetime. I am sending my love and hugs to Connie, Karla, Sherry, Becky, and Tristan and all of his loved ones. I pray you find a piece of him in something beautiful each day.

“ I learned so much from Pop but I think the most important lesson I learned from him is to have fun. Pop showed us by example that a smile on everyone's face is worth the world.

“ I've only really spent time with you for one year, but it was probably the best year of my life and you were a big reason why. Everyday I spent with you was a great one. I'll never forget how we killed that rattlesnake on our first day hunting. And everyday I'll look at the bow rack you made for me, I'll remember you. I'll miss campfire breakfast, which only tasted real good with the Cajun seasoning you put into it. Or going hunting with you, although it was pretty hard to get up that early on a weekend. But after you woke me up for the second or third time and told me my hot chocolate was done, I was ready to go. And those are only a few of the many great moments I had with you. You told me a few times that you consider me as one of your grandkids. And you know that I consider you as my grandpa as well. You were really a happy, funny and loving person and you'll be missed by many. I love and I'll miss you. Love Andy (you were probably the only person that called me that way)
