“ I'm so sorry for your loss. As a child at First Southern Baptist Church in Downey I always remember her smiling welcoming face. She was a sweet and gentle lady. She was quick to laugh and fun to be around. She raised sweet children who were part of my church family. I know she is with her Jesus and I pray for you all as you miss her here.

“ Catherine was such a great friend. She was so kind and sweet I loved to visit with her. She has sent my kids and I cards every since I met her. I have cherished many of them and they truly brought comfort and joy to me in some of my darkest days. She loved dreamscicles little angels and remember taking her to Barbras gift shop to see the latest ones that came out. She will be missed!!
