Growing up in southern California, Kelly started her young life as a flower child in the late 60's and as she matured, Kelly enjoyed the ocean and the feel of the waves under her surfboard and being in synch with the tides. She enjoyed taking care of horses, and the magical connection she would receive from their love to her. Her dogs also played an important role in Kelly's happiness, and she had plenty four-legged buddies throughout her lifetime. Kelly is lovingly survived by her husband of 24 years, Jeff Peterson of the home; her three children; Drew Ayn Peterson and her fiancé Richard Thomas, Jeffrey Andrew Peterson, and Taylor Leanne Peterson all from Tulsa, Oklahoma. Her mother, Kathleen Carr, her sisters Shelly Johnson-
