“ You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Lee was always so pleasant, and such a good neighbor. It's hard to lose a parent, but a comfort to know he is truly in God's country now.

“ I didn't check my email this week until this afternoon 4/9/15 and saw that it was too late to attend any of Lee's services. However, I can tell you that it breaks my heart for your loss and mine. He was my last tie to my parents and that generation. I loved to sing for him when I attended his church. He was so appreciative. He was always such a caring person and so strong in the Lord. He will be sorely missed. I don't shed tears much anymore, seems there is too much sadness in the world my tears have run out, but I can't seem to stop crying at this news. I'm so glad that he has gone to heaven to be with his love, Betty and all of the rest of his family. I know that soon we will all be getting to enjoy being with him and the Lord God in heaven. Even so Lord Jesus, come! Your friend, Mary Evelyn Clemons-Holmes-Trower
