After returning home from the war he married Wanda (Fidler) on May 29, 1947 in Van Buren, AR and was blessed with 4 children: Don, Linda, Olen and Lavern. Paul loved nothing more than going fishing and hunting with his sons, grandsons and great-grandkids and dearly loved family get-togethers, reunions, camping with family, and having big fish fries. He would get the biggest joy out of taking friends and family fishing and watching them catch fish; he loved fall when he could go to the family deer camp and sit around with the boys eating and telling stories. Paul was preceded in death by his parents; wife Wanda; brothers: Oscar, Arthur, Lloyd, Curtis and Roy; sisters: Lillie, Eula, Voda and Vera; and son Don Self. He is survived by his daughter Linda Allen and husband Steve of Morris; son Olen Self and wife Debra of Catoosa; daughter Evelyn Laverne Self of Catoosa; and twin sister Pauline Risenhoover of Quinton; dearly loved grandchildren: Steven Self and wife Lisa of Claremore, Angela Branson of Morris, Olen Dale Self and wife Lesley of Claremore, Tracie Shelton and husband Tom of Broken Arrow, Clint Self, Michelle Medlock and husband Ronnie, all of Claremore; 12 great-grandchildren: Jennifer, April, Anna Marie, Jessica, Clint, Colten, Megan, Matthew, Keara, “Thanks Chrissy, there are some odd complications that have seowld things down. The illness he contracted due to his Chemo treatment was unusual so the coroner had to be informed. The undertaker was away for the weekend and didn't get back home until yesterday, which has caused a further delay. The bank holiday weekend will delay it a bit more. On the plus side the undertaker was a personal friend of my Dad and was able to add some personal thoughts on what might be appropriate. My Dad has been in and out of hospital with serious illnesses for some time and he always bounced back. He always had hope for more stable health. The best thing we can do is treat him with the dignity he deserves.
