“ As we get older we are struck by the people that leave this earthly plain. People we love, others we are related to and then those we just know. I only knew Bob thru our auctions. He and Marilyn have attended countless auctions and be the premiere furniture buyers. People you could always count on for a bid. But what struck me more when Karen Worth called me today, Bob Doherty was always smiling, easy going, loved a joke and always always beside and taking care of Marilyn. To Marilyn, you are going to feel lost. Talking from experience, I lost my Suzy a year ago. It's going to hurt. You are going to cry, sometimes uncontrollably other moments at the mere hint of a memory. Someone noted that the amount of grief we feel for a lost loved one is the same as the amount of love we had for that person. My heart goes out to you. Remember just cherish all your memories, good and bad, strong and weak memories, and place them in our heart with a key.

“ Even though we didn't spend much time together, I will always remember the the summer of 1969; my first beach ❖- experience, visiting DC and all the exciting stuff that happens there and then the long expectation of getting to watch you parachute....but we had to leave before you jumped and I was so disappointed. Some things I will never forget. I will miss you Uncle Bob. Love ya! "Clyde"
