“ I echo Jeff's words about your smile and your laugh. You were determined to help others enjoy life. I don't know what kind of daughter, wife or mother you were, but I know you helped my dad make it through grade school, I know your grandchildren loved you and I know you were a good aunt to me! Far beyond what I deserved. You gave so much life to every room you walked into. Aunt Sandra, I asked Holy Spirit to give me a word for you and the word JOY came to mind. Joy is the second part of the fruit of the Spirit, second only to love. Often around Christmas we sing "Joy to the World" referring to Jesus, but I believe you brought joy to this world as well! Most people don't know how to handle adversity, but you handled every curve ball life threw you like a champ! Like Paul writing from prison, life's message was "rejoice always". The greatest joy is cherished after a victory! Aunt Sandra, I see you in each of your children: Johna the caregiver, your adventurous nature in Wes, your spirit at work in Cortni, your fun and laughter in Darbi and your work ethic in Timmeni. I also prayed for a verse to share with you and this was the verse I got. I pray it blesses you, your family, your friends and your legacy on this earth! Love you Aunt Sandra!! 6 There are many who say, "Who will show us some good? Lift up the light of your face upon us, O Lord!" 7 You have put more joy in my heart than they have when their grain and wine abound. 8 In peace I will both lie down and sleep; for you alone, O Lord, make me dwell in safety. Psalm 4:6-8

“ She was one of the sweetest people I have ever met. She made me feel like one of her own and welcomed me into her family from day one. I only wish I knew her earlier so I could have loved her longer. Love you Momo.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Sandys passing. She will be missed. I first met her and John years ago at the doctors office. I always enjoyed seeing both of them come in. I can only imagine what her and nurse Vickie are doing in heaven. I hope they stay out of trouble.
