

Tammy Lynn Fields

December 13, 1961 - September 3, 2021

Obituary

Tammy Lynn (Catlett) Fields, age 59, resident of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma was born on December 13, 1961 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma and was the daughter of Arval Lee and Judith Ann (Blevins) Catlett. Tammy moved to her Heavenly Home on Friday, September 3, 2021 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma. Tammy worked as a machinist at North American Carbide until she retired in 1999. She was also a devoted homemaker who loved caring for her family. Tammy was cherished by her friends and family for her loving devotion and selfless servitude. She enjoyed the outdoors, music, NASCAR, crafting, and spending time with her family. Tammy could create anything she set her mind to from gorgeous jewelry, to soaps, from shirts to stunning flower beds, and much, much more. She put her heart into her creations and made them beautiful.

Tammy is survived by her children, Dustin Catlett of Verdigris, Oklahoma and Jennifer McClellan and her husband Brent of Verdigris, Oklahoma; two grandsons, Max and Mason McClellan; her brother, Kevin Catlett of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; and numerous other relatives and friends.

Tammy was called to her eternal home to join her husband, Arthur Douglas "Doug" Fields and her parents, Arval and Judith "Judy" Catlett.

Services celebrating Tammy's life will be at 10:00 AM on Thursday, September 9, 2021 at Brown Funeral Home Chapel in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma with Pastor Jim Land officiating. Tammy will be laid to rest at Woodlawn Cemetery in Claremore, Oklahoma. Pallbearers are Brent McClellan, Dillon Pruitt, Jackie Smith, Joe Scarbrough, Scott Blevins, and Les Thompson. Honorary Pallbearers are Max McClellan and Mason McClellan.
