“ Sue was one of my favorite reasons to come to church each Sunday. We sat behind her for almost two years and she always greeted us so kindly before each service. I so admired her grace and strength in how she dealt with her cancer. As I watched her raise her hands and praise the Lord during worship I was reminded how powerful that is, even through life's trials. I admired that very much. She was a gentle, kind and sweet blessing to me each Sunday morning and she will be missed.
